2008 Test Equipment Rental Catalogue now available, in print and online

TR Corporation's test equipment division TechRentals today announced the release of the 33rd edition of their popular rental product catalogue.

Containing thousands of items of both proven and cutting edge gear, the catalogue is a useful tool for technicians, engineers, maintenance teams and others who require specialised test equipment. Available in both a hard copy catalogue and online searchable file, the catalogue is distributed annually to over 15,000 clients throughout the Asia Pacific region.

With solutions for most industries, equipment categories covered include:

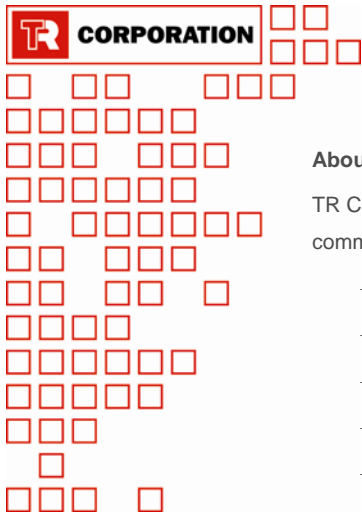

- Physical measurement
- Data acquisition
- Electrical power measurement
- Non-destructive testing
- RF & microwave
- Environmental
- OH&S
- Data, network & telecommunications
- HVAC

Commencing in 1972 as a small family-owned electronics repair business, TechRentals is now part of an extensive international organisation known as TR Corporation, delivering technology solutions across Australia, New Zealand and Malaysia.

The group offers specialised solutions across test equipment, communications and audiovisual to major industrial, mining and government clients. Capabilities include equipment rental, sales and comprehensive NATA accredited calibration facilities.

Copies of the TechRentals 2008 Test Equipment Rental Catalogue are available on their website, by calling 1800 632 652 or emailing marketing@trcorporation.com
